Our Subsidiaries

Adonis Insurance and Reinsurance Co. S.A.L. (ADIR), Partnership with Natixis Assurances - France

ADIR is a subsidiary of Byblos Bank established in 1983. The company combines financial stability with an ongoing quest for product innovation and an uncompromising commitment to its customers in terms of service, coverage, and proper handling of claims. ADIR provides a comprehensive range of standard and tailored insurance products to both individual and institutional clients, including life, fire, general accident and medical coverage, among others. In 2001, Natixis Assurances, one of the leading bancassurers in France and an affiliate of Banque Populaire et Caisse d'Épargne (BPCE), acquired a 34% stake in ADIR, with Byblos Bank retaining a controlling interest of 64%. The Group believes that the association with the French banking giant will continue to facilitate the offering of bancassurance services to Byblos Bank customers in Lebanon and other selected markets where ADIR seeks to forge local partnerships.

Byblos Bank Europe S.A.

Founded in 1976, Byblos Bank Europe S.A. is headquartered in Brussels and has branches in London and Paris. Byblos Bank S.A.L. holds more than 99% of the shares in Byblos Bank Europe, which specializes in short-term trade finance for selected exporting companies in Europe and offers correspondent banking services in the Middle East and Africa. In addition, the Paris branch provides banking services to customers in French-speaking African countries, while the London branch serves clients in English-speaking countries on the same continent.

PROFILE OF THE GROUP

Byblos Bank Africa

After three decades of prosperous business in Sudan via local banks and a selected customer base, the Group established Byblos Bank Africa in 2003. Operating under Islamic Sharia'a, Byblos Bank Africa's main lines of business are commercial banking and correspondent banking. Following a capital increase in 2012, Byblos Bank S.A.L. remains the largest shareholder in Byblos Bank Africa (56.9%), followed by the OPEC Fund for International Development (17.5%) and the Islamic Corporation for the Development of the Private Sector (8.75%).

Byblos Invest Bank S.A.L.

Byblos Invest Bank was established in 2003 as a means of increasing medium- and long-term investment options for the Group's customers. Under Lebanese law and the regulations of the Central Bank and the Banking Control Commission, Byblos Invest Bank is a specialized institution: its main objectives are to allow customers to benefit from attractive interest rates on term deposits for periods longer than six months, and to provide medium- and long-term loans to new and expanding companies.

Byblos Bank Syria P.J.S.C.

Founded in 2005, Byblos Bank Syria has developed a wide range of commercial, corporate and retail banking services to meet the needs of clients in the Syrian market. In 2011, Byblos Bank Syria successfully completed a capital increase to 6.12 billion Syrian Pounds (SYP), equivalent to 12,240,000 shares. In May 2012, a 5:1 stock split was carried out, increasing the number of shares to 61,200,000 at SYP 100 per share. During 2014, Byblos Bank S.A.L. increased its ownership to 59.81%, while the OPEC Fund for International Development share was reduced to 0.065% and that of Syrian investors stood at 40.125%.

Adonis Insurance Company Syria S.A. (ADIR Syria)

In 2007, the Byblos Bank Group established Adonis Insurance Company Syria S.A. (ADIR Syria), a Syrian insurer with paid-up capital of USD 25 million. The main shareholders are Byblos Invest Bank S.A.L., Byblos Bank Syria P.J.S.C., and Adonis Insurance and Reinsurance Co. S.A.L. (ADIR), together with approximately 20 prominent Syrian businesspeople. The Company operates from its Head Office in Damascus, through offices in Aleppo and Homs, and through the branch network of Byblos Bank Syria. ADIR Syria provides a broad range of insurance products underwritten in a conservative and prudent way.

Byblos Bank Armenia C.J.S.C.

Following the 2007 acquisition of a 100% stake in International Trade Bank, the institution was renamed Byblos Bank Armenia and commenced operations in 2008 as the Group's fourth overseas subsidiary. Byblos Bank S.A.L. holds 65% of Byblos Bank Armenia's shares, while the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (25%) and the OPEC Fund for International Development (10%) hold the remainder. With four branches – three of them in the capital, Yerevan – Byblos Bank Armenia continues to develop products that address local needs.

Byblos Bank RDC S.A.

On 27 March 2010, Byblos Bank S.A.L. participated in the capital increase of Solidaire Banque Internationale, a bank incorporated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Byblos Bank S.A.L. became the major shareholder, with 66.67% of the shares, and acquired management control. Renamed Byblos Bank RDC, the Bank operates as an independent subsidiary of the Byblos Bank Group, with its Head Office in Kinshasa and one branch in the capital's Gombe District. It provides mainly commercial lending, transfers and payments, letters of credit, letters of guarantee, and documentary collection services.
